During the sequence: formative assessment	At the end: summative assessment
It helps you improve.	It checks what you have learnt.
You are allowed to make mistakes: a mistake you spot is a mistake you will not make again.	You show what you can do, with criteria you already know.
You check your own work with the checklist.	The teacher uses the same grid as you.
sessions 1 to 6 (the sports report, the story of the names, the fact-checker timeline, the 1897 headline, the Peace Arch tour, the debate).	your podcast in pairs (about 3 minutes), marked out of 20.

What I need to do: I tick when it is done

☐	I compare the two cities with whereas, unlike or both, and I say if the exchange is equal.

MODEL ANSWER

A: Welcome to Two Cities, One Coast. Today we compare Vancouver and Seattle. B: Both cities are on the Pacific coast, but Seattle is in the United States whereas Vancouver is in Canada. A: And they share a long history. Seattle is named after Chief Si'ahl, a Duwamish and Suquamish leader, while Vancouver is named after a British navigator, George Vancouver, who explored the coast in 1792. B: Vancouver stands on unceded Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh land, and the city acknowledged it in 2014. A: Be careful with the famous Chief Seattle speech: the first text was published in 1887, and the most famous lines were written in the 1970s. B: In 1897, gold from the Canadian Klondike made Seattle rich, because the miners bought their equipment there. So the exchange was not equal. A: On screen it is the same: The X-Files was filmed in Vancouver, but the story was set in the United States. B: Yet the Peace Arch of 1921 says "Children of a Common Mother", and since 2004 the fans have shared the Cascadia Cup. A: So, two cities, one coast? Yes, but the exchange is not always equal. Thanks for listening!

Criterion by criterion

Criterion	Full points	Partial points	0 points
1. Task and message (4)	Clear answer to the question, position stated at the start and at the end.	Position unclear or only at the end.	Off topic or no position.
2. Facts from the journey (5)	At least two accurate facts or quotes from the documents, with names and dates.	One accurate fact, or facts with errors in names or dates.	No fact from the journey.
3. Comparison and nuance (4)	Done fully and clearly.	Done partly, or not linked to the topic.	Missing.
4. Speaking without reading (3)	Notes are keywords only; voice and eye contact help the audience.	Reads for part of the time.	Reads the whole time.
5. Language (4)	Varied starters and connectors, four or more journey words, meaning always clear.	Few connectors or journey words; meaning sometimes unclear.	Meaning often unclear.

Common mistakes to watch for

- Saying that Seattle is in Canada or that Vancouver is the capital of Canada (the capital is Ottawa).
- Quoting "How can you buy or sell the sky" as Chief Seattle's real words.
- Reading a written text instead of speaking from keywords.
- Comparing without comparison words (whereas, while, unlike, both).
- Forgetting the question: is the exchange equal?
